One Job = Livelihood

We at The Little Girl's Job Bank believe that 'Right to work' is every person's right. Here at The Little Girl's Job Bank we help underprivileged job seekers who cross the age of 18 to find work and plan their careers, and we make it easier for employers to recruit and hire them with zero resources in India and across the globe.

This magnificent initiative is a postulation of The Little Girl's Foundation which aims to bring powerful and positive changes in society because we believe that there is no power for change greater than a community that overcomes hard luck with their hard work.
